Karibu Zanzibar

The Islands of Spice and Serenity!

Zanzibar Islands are the largest gem in the Zanzibar Archipelago (which is made up of the larger islands of Pemba and Unguja). This tropical paradise is defined by white-sand beaches, spice-scented plantations, and the historic appeal of Stone Town's cobbled streets. The mere mention of Zanzibar conjures images of swaying coconuts trees and pristine sands, making it a dream destination for travellers seeking relaxation and adventure. Plus, it's a perfect winding-up destination after a Tanzania Safari Tour and offers an array of experiences to captivate every sense. On a Zanzibar Holiday Tour, visitors will discover the iconic red colobus monkeys on guided forest walks, set sail to secluded sandbanks for ultimate seclusion, etc. Zanzibar, with its fusion of African, Portuguese, Omani, British, German, and Indian influences, creates a vivid representation of its rich heritage. From lazy days basking on sun-kissed beaches to taking part in some of the best water-based Things to do in Zanzibar, the island invites you to explore its variety of experiences.
